RECREATIONAL FLUID ROWER

Mix And Match Your Own Indoor Rower

Colour your row with NEON. Guaranteed to illuminate the contemporary home gym, NEON's changeable bright yellow, orange, green and black coloured frame options will appeal to the young fitness enthusiast who cares about style. Engineered from the finest steel and aluminium, this light recreational rower won't disappoint with FDF's structural integrity, patented Fluid Force and unbeatable ergonomics.

With built in transport wheels and compact storage footprint, NEON will electrify any room of the house. You won't find a more affordable indoor rower with a modern edge and pleasing performance.

Illuminate Your Fluid Workout

Designed for progressive training, NEON offers a total body workout for any fitness level. Featuring FDF's patented fluid technology, NEON's twin tank facilitates speed and endurance training allowing the user to find a level of Fluid Force that's challenging. NEON's twin tank simulates the feeling of rowing a boat through water, with a natural catch and constant resistance throughout the stroke, ensuring no dead spots.

Engaging the upper and lower core muscles simultaneously, NEON's flexible colour range will inspire you to train harder and fire up an unbeatable rowing technique.
